Employment Question

Charles T. Clayton in the U. S. department of labor has considerable to say in a pamphlet issued and sent out by the department on the subject of labor. He says some of the most interesting of these new revelations brot about by demands upon producers is the sudden appreciation of the old age existence of anarchy in the labor market. He says nothing so alive and so extended was ever recommended by accident. From the pamphlet we can not understand just what Mr. Clayton means but he gives several illustrations which if they illustrate at all do so by showing that skilled labor is ready to abandon any one job for another which pays more money and that skilled labor should not be drawn from employment on government work or from those who have contract connections with the war in any way. He says a few weeks ago a skilled machinist came to his employer, a manufacturer, hearing a letter written by a Rochester manufacturer offering the machinist a job in a Rochester plant on war material. The letter in glowing terms, told of the opportunities in Rochester; skillfully it referred to the patriotic value of the work being executed by the Rochester firm; and in conclusion it summoned the recipient to report to a named recruiting agent on a certain date, under pain of being reported a slacker and a traitor to our country. The machinist is a young married man with a little home not paid for and a couple of toddling youngsters to cherish, who wanted to be loyal and his quandary was perplexing. He consulted his boss, an old school fellow who sent the letter to Washington, rightfully demanding whether it was anthetic in view of the fact that the man was already engaged full time upon equally important for war work. Mr. Clayton does not vouchsafe a word of information from Washington nor name the final disposition of the young mechanic.

Another illustration he gives is that of a large corporation near Philadelphia inserting advertisements in Ohio news papers offering certain classes of workmen a little higher than the regular wages then prevalent, and "double time for Sundays and holidays; plenty of over time all the time." Hundreds of men left war manufacturing jobs in central and northern Ohio and paid their way to this plant. He says a large number of them were craft not yet needed by the plant altho the advertisement calls for them. These men were turned away after having thrown up jobs on war work, and expending many days and considerable sums upon travel and subsistence. Many of them were left destitute and hundreds drifted to near by cities, broken in spirit and embittered against the Government and our country. We fail to catch the point since the Government or those who hold Government contracts are taking all the labor possible they can get.

Another illustration is that of an enterprising labor agent of a Government plant in the south who hired a brass band and sent it in a motor truck to visit points frequently visited by negro farm hands on Saturday nights. Torch lights and music and promises of a most alluring pay, and a little blamboyant oratory built up his needed force rapidly but it also shut down about 75 square miles of farms. The illustrations so far appear to conflict.

He says a new load of workers came to a new war department construction job on the sea

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine. Save your hair! Try it!

board from a western point. The employment service brot them and war department paid the bills. The job is vitally important and should be rushed to the limit. Like many of the jobs now being done by the Government. The lives of many men and the time when our full strength can be employed in the war depending partly upon it, but bright and early the next morning the agent of the firm which has a government contract and a plant a few miles away came over and offered the men 3 cents an hour advance and took the whole train load away. Mr. Clayton fails to say whether the man having the government contract and who finally got these men had important work to do for the Government. In fact, printed and distributed at considerable expense by the Government printing office is a pamphlet circulated over the country which, outside of the one feature of transportation provided by the Government and the rough outline of what is needed in the way of men for war labor, there appears to be nothing that the public is interested in, in the slightest degree. For war labor Mr. Clayton says: for war construction 709,184; army personal civilian workers 195,000; shipbuilding 278,125; housing 30,000 munition, 878,800; mines 165,916; shops 35,000; farm labor 1,636,913. Considerable of an army we submit.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that can't be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Circulars free. All Druggists. 75c.
